WHY IT'S GREAT TO BE A SHARK!

Often parents, teachers, and students are asked, "What is great about your school?" So, we have compiled some unique points about what we believe makes Saratoga Shores Elementary a GREAT school:

Celebrating the Student

- Wheel of Fortune: Student recognition program that celebrates academics and citizenship
- Dr. T's Readers: Student book club sponsored monthly by the principal
- Character Education Program: Students are recognized for living monthly character traits
- Lunch with the Principal: Students honored by celebrating success with the principal over lunch

Building the Student

- School wide kindness campaign. The Stand4Kind Initiative.
- Visual Arts Project: Students receive instruction in many art genres
- Battle of the Books: Student competition on facts from a series of books
- Science Fair: Students design original scientific experiments
- Student Council: Training of our sixth grade students in leadership service skills
- Shark Attack (Flex) Time: Targeted time designed to attack individual student's academic needs

Enriching the Student

- Ballroom • Science Club • Singing Sharks • Shark 100 Mile Challenge • STEM • Chess Club

Incredible Parents & PTA

- Room Parents • Spooktacular Carnival • Swimming with the Sharks • Reflections • Home Reading Library • Parents and Pastries
